BAYENDAY MORNING, PERMANNY, PE of the fathers, and so it should remain.
Common sense, reason, the laws and instincts of our nature, all cry out against the two last amendments. The law of God himself is arrayed against them. That law cannot be riolated without the violatore calling down the just judgments of Heaven upon them. The 14th and 15th amendments will yet be done away with. The present insanity will some day come to an end, and reason will reasert her empire over the minds of those who have been involved in temporary aberration, and have been the instruments of involving others in the sad consequences. No platform of anyone worthy to be called a Democrat.

As little can we assent to the Missouri platform, as to the Ohio scheme, mentioned above. There are some things in it which challenge our respect, but on the whole it falls short of the high and lofty standard of the Democratic party. Sensators of the allenge our respect, but on the whole it falls short of the high and lofty standard of the Democratic party. Sena-ator Schurz, and other disaffected Repub-The gentlemen are strangers to the true faith in politics, and as little qualified to found a new party for Democrats, as those who are in labor with the Ohio abortion. The efforts of both parties are likely to fall still-born upon the political world, and to come to a speedy end. In so far as these organizations weaken the party in power, they are well, but Democrats cannot affiliate with them. If the prime movers of these attempts to form new parties are sincere in their desire to overtheem the present Administration, then the present Administration, then the present Administration, then the present administration to the present and the present icans, were the sponsors at the baptism movers of these attempts to form new passies are sincere in their desire to overthrow the present Administration, they should co-operate with the Democratic Conservative party, for that party offers the surest chance of success. It numbers, to-day, in its ranks, three millions and a lnif of voters, and a majority of the voting population. A proper organization of that party, under proper leaders, will-demonstrate the fact at the polls.

The N. Y. Herald reports General B. Butler as saying:

"That the claim for consequential damages is a strong one, but our members of the Joint High Conservative party, for that party offers the surest chance of success. Bishop Lay, of the Episcopal church preached in school house half, on last Sanday evening, a sound sermon to a large and appreciative audience.

Mis Benny, has purchased the residence of Dr. James Heigh, on the suburbs of our village, where she has removed her Female Scotinary. It can be truthfully said, that Mrs. Benny's institution is one worthy the support of all who have daughters or words to cluent; her corps of teachers is full, and well skilled in their duties.

The new Presbyterian church at Georgetown, is about completed; it is a hand-some edifice, and reflects great credit on the committee having the building in charge.
